

EPF Withdrawal for Education

Parents of RUMC students or student of RUMC (for the postgraduate programmes), who are members and contribute to the Employees Provident Fund (EPF) are able to withdraw from their savings Account 2 for payment of education fees for higher learning education (RCSI & UCD Malaysia Campus) or abroad (RCSI or UCD).

The applicant must not reach the age of 55 on the date of application and has savings in Account 2.

Payment for tuition fees can be made directly to RUMC's account or as a reimbursement into the member's EPF-recognised bank account.

Terms of Withdrawal

1. Study Programmes

Members or members' children are registered to undertake the undergraduate or postgraduate programme at RCSI & UCD Malaysia Campus.

2. Withdrawal categories

- a. To finance members' tuition fees or settle outstanding education loan e.g. PTPTN.
- b. To settle children's tuition fees.

3. Tuition Fees

All charges imposed by the higher learning institution, including hostel and accommodation fees, and a one way flight ticket for students registering for the first year of their course

4. Frequency of Withdrawal

Members may withdraw at every semester or academic year to pay for the tuition fees.

5. Mode of Payment

a. Payment in Malaysia

The payment will be credited directly into member's bank account, which should be active and in the list panel banks, recognised by EPF.
